Wine Dinner at the Pacific Grill!

Our first wine dinner of the year at the Pacific Grill Restaurant, pairing Thierry's unfussy, yet appealing and current interpretation of classic European cuisine with selected wines from the Konyári Winery in Hungary.

János Konyári was named wine maker of the year 2008 and won a gold medal at the annual Brussels wine competition. His wines first appeared in the market at the beginning of the 1990s, and he was the first to introduce barrique barrel aging in Hungary, and the first to make top reds in the South Balaton region.

Chef Thierry brings with him a vast international gourmet experience from around the world.

Earning his first merits in his home country France, alongside Michelin star Chef Bernard Labrosse, Chef Thierry moved on to broaden his experience with culinary stops in Singapore, in Kuala Lumpur and China, before finally arriving in Thailand. He held several Chef Positions with international companies like the Westin, Banyan Tree, and Sheraton as well as well-known stand alone restaurants.

Jazz @ the Club

Jerry Byrd, longtime guitarist for the legendary pianist/vocalist Freddy Cole, has set out on his own to continue his solo career and expand his musical horizons. Jerry's musical talents have taken him around the world, literally, with studio dates and concert appearances with jazz greats such as Roland Kirk, Jack McDuff, Sonny Stitt, Dizzy Gillespie, Lonnie Smith, "Slide" Hampton, and Frank Foster, among others. He has credited his longtime friend, the late Wes Montgomery, as his mentor and greatest influence on his playing style. Jazz guitar great George Benson and Jerry have also been friends since their early days in Pittsburgh knocking around at local jam sessions, and their lifelong association can be readily heard in each other's playing.
